Sandy River & Rangeley Lake Road Number SR&RL 74

This box car red 30' box car with single door has white lettering and runs on brown Barber Coleman Arch Bar trucks. The Sandy River Railroad was started in 1879 to connect northern Franklin County with Maine Central Railroad, which terminated in Farmington. In 1908, the Sandy River merged with all of the other Franklin County Liliputs and emerged as the Sandy River & Rangeley Lakes Railroad, boasting over 120 miles of track and 13 engines.

#800 00 150...$14.65

Colorado & Southern Road Number C&S 7132

This 30' flat car is box car red with white lettering and runs on brown Bettendorf trucks. Originally built for the Colorado and Southern as stock car series 7015-7134 in the early 1900s, many of these cars were stripped down to their decks and used as flat cars without changing the reporting marks or reassigning the cars to a different series

CELEBRATE HALLOWEEN WITH Haunted Hamlet

Brimstone Manor

With ornamental bats at the windows and threatening gargoyles on the gables, this eerie old manor brings to mind a world of crashing thunder and flashing lightning.

#960 07 011...$18.95

Cider Shack Café

You can almost smell baked apples wafting from this cozy little café where bushels of brightly colored apples are lined up in preparation for the cider press or kitchen. This popular gathering place offers a variety of treats and eats, but 'Spider Cider' remains the house specialty.

#960 07 012...$14.95

Creepy Critters Pet Shop

You'll find more than cute little puppies at the Creepy Critters Pet Shop. Delightfully detailed critters await the unsuspecting pet lover—including giant spiders, one-eyed monsters and a man-eating plant!

#960 07 013...$14.95

Ghostly Spirits Tavern

This is one bar where everyone is 'dying' to know your name. This quaint Tudor-style tavern features glow-in-the-dark ghosts peering from the windows as well as a pair playing checkers on the back porch. Barrels of 'Deathly Pale Ale' are lined up, ready to quench those ghostly thirsts.

#960 07 014...$16.95

Booville Train Station It's Lighted!

With its wrought iron filigree, stately slate roof, and whimsical coffin and tombstone benches, this festive building with lights is the perfect headquarters for the Booville & Beyond Railroad. Daily shipments of both live and dead freight make this netherworld train station the center of activity in our little Haunted Hamlet.

#960 07 015...$20.95

Misery Mansion

Visitors beware! This granddaddy of haunted houses is frightfully decorated with broken windows, bat wing gingerbread and spider web detailing. At first glance it appears this old Victorian mansion is abandoned, but look closer and you can see a ghostly resident peering out the second floor window.

#960 07 016...$18.95

Nightmare Factory

Deep into the night, bone-chilling noises can be heard from this dilapidated old building. With its broken windows, crooked pipes, and sacks of gloom, doom, screams and fright, it's the perfect setting for cooking up scary nightmares.

#960 07 017...$18.95

Spooky's Costume Shop

Creepy costumes are no problem at Spooky's Costume Shop. Skeletons, witches, mummies, and ghosts fill the display windows, while vicious gingerbread 'fangs' adorn the eaves.

#960 07 018...$14.95

Witches Brew Spell Shop

Eye of newt and toe of frog are but two nasty ingredients to be had at Witches Brew Spell Shop. Spider web gable vents, boiling cauldrons and a broom 'parking garage' are a few of the bewitching details that add to this scene.

Pumpkin Patch

This little harvest garden, with its rustic wood shack and cart overflowing with pumpkins, is one of the busiest places in town. It supplies all of Booville with jack-o'-lanterns to decorate for Halloween, which is every day in this Haunted Hamlet!

#960 09 061...$14.95

Booville Cemetery

No Halloween town is complete without its own cemetery and ours is no exception. Booville cemetery features a creepy crypt, tombstones and a freshly dug grave waiting for its occupant.

#960 09 062...$14.95

Spooky Tree

An ominous old hollowed-out tree with a peek-a-boo owl looms over the stone footbridge that crosses the stream in the center of town. Many of Booville's residents pause under its menacing branches as they make their way from one side of town to the other.

#960 09 063...$9.95

Center Base

The center base provides a perfect setting for your Haunted Hamlet display. A brown base, supported by a low-rise brimstone wall.

#960 05 0 04...$24.95

Haunted Hamlet Premium Pack

Includes: Table-Top Town Haunted Hamlet (12 pc. set), Table-Top 'N Track, Glow-in-the-Dark Booville & Beyond Train Set (trees and people not included)
