Magne-Matic® Coupler 50th Anniversary

Fifty years ago, in 1969, Keith and Dale Edwards patented the design for the N scale Magne-Matic coupler in the month of September. The introduction of the Magne-Matic coupling system revolutionized the industry, offering the first 'hands-free' coupling, uncoupling and delayed-action recoupling system. The modeler could now have complete control over their train, operating solely from their control panel. Over the years, Micro-Trains has also produced many Magne-Matic coupler conversions to allow rolling stock and locomotive from other manufacturers to be converted over to the Magne-Matic system. This year, Micro-Trains will be celebrating the 50th Anniversary of the N scale coupler in various ways throughout the year. Stay tuned each month as we recognize and celebrate the legacy of the Magne-Matic Coupler!

- AUTOMATIC Drop-off, pick up and switch cars just like the rail yard.
- SIMPLE Hands-free coupling and uncoupling.
- RELIABLE Smooth, trouble-free performance.
- PROTOTYPICAL An industry standard, most realistic looking couplers for N, Z and Nn3 scales.
- FLEXIBLE There's a full selection of couplers to fit most model trains.

Thomas Kinkadee Painter of Light™ Series

Extended Pre-Order thru January 18th

Micro-Trains is excited to announce our newest series; the Thomas Kinkadee Painter of Light™ Series! This N scale series will feature twelve remarkable Thomas Kinkadee paintings on black boxcars and will also include a locomotive and caboose. Each car will be equipped with interior lighting that can be turned on and off from the outside of the car using a wand, to illuminate the painting on the side of the car. Cars will also be available without the interior lighting component.

Thomas Kinkadee, the Painter of Light™, emphasized simple pleasures and inspirational messages through his art – and the branded products created from that art. From textiles, to collectibles, to music and books, Thom believed that both the ability and the inspiration to create his paintings had been given to him as a gift. His goal as an artist was to touch people of all faiths and to bring peace and joy into their lives through the images he had created.
